大阪大英語　第10講　解答

１．

（解答例）

I think it is sometimes a good thing to tell a lie. This is because telling the truth is not always right. For example, the doctor finds that you will die from cancer within a month. In this case, nobody knows whether he or she should tell you the truth or not. If you are a negative person, the doctor should not tell you the truth clearly. Therefore, it is sometimes a good thing to tell a lie. (78 words)

２．

（解答例）

I recently read the comic Uchuu Kyoudai. There is a scene in the comic. An astronaut has younger brother, who has stayed in his room because of depression for two years. He said to his brother this way. "If you feel your world is small and boring, the very feeling gives you a power of going forward." After reading the comic, I found that the feeling of self-hate and self-denial leads to growth and success. (75 words)

３．

（解答例）

I think that to become a mature adult is to become a person who has modesty and helps those who are in a weak position.

First, when you become an adult, you will get a certain power. The power makes you arrogant without thinking anything. Nobody follows the arrogant. Nobody respects them. Therefore, it's important that you are aware of being modest.

Second, the power that you get as an adult should be used for the weak. As you grow up, you will get stronger. You should use the strength not for yourself but for the weak. Such a justice makes you stronger and mature.

A mature adult should be modest and unselfish(altruistic). (113 words)

4.

(解答例)

I choose to see and talk directly with her. There are two reasons for this.

First, indirect ways, such as a phone call, an e-mail, and a letter, are not fair. Because I have been seeing her for two years, I should be honest to her.

Second, a good parting means a good meeting. To see and talk directly with her is the most honest way of a parting. Though there is not a good parting, we should do our best.

For the above reasons, I choose to see and talk directly with her. I choose the most honest way. (100 words)
